ROOSEVELT BOOMERS POURING INTO THE CONVENTION CITY

Progressive Delegates Divided Into Three Camps, But All Are Desirous That the Colonel Be Nominated.

CHICAGO, June 5.—Wearing badges labeled "Americanism" and button photographs of Col. Roosevelt, delegates to the progressive convention today poured into Chicago. Although the leaders and rank and file apparently are not considering the nomination of any other than Col. Roosevelt at the progressive convention, no arrangements for the formalities have been made. It has not even been decided who will place the colonel's name before the convention. Oscar Straus of New York is being most prominently considered. Seconding speeches are expected from practically every state delegation.

dation there will be about 700 alter-

The Washington progressive delegates discussed today and elected Thomas Mahoney of Seattle chairman. National Committee Chairman A. G. Perkins was applauded when he said the party would not go out of existence by merger with the republicans.

The Chicago progressive delegation, which includes the national committee, the western, mid-western and southern delegations, and the national committee of the Progressive Party, will be in session at the Hotel Astor, 14th and Madison streets, to-morrow, and the national committee of the Progressives, which includes the national committee of the Progressive Party, will be in session at the Hotel Astor, 14th and Madison streets, to-morrow.

Perkins Is Under Fire.

Some of the progressive leaders express dissatisfaction at the attitude of George W. Perkins of New York, "father" of the progressive party, and especially because he had extended the "lame branch" to the republicans. Those who protested against making overtures to the republicans insisted that the strength of the progressives lay in compelling the republicans to come to them.

It was made plain that at present there are three elements among the progressives. First, and probably a majority, are those who will support Roosevelt, and who will not offend him who will accept any other nominee, but who are nevertheless practical politicians, willing to do what they believe will defeat the democratic nominee.

A second element is composed of those in favor waiting until the republicans nominate a candidate, then supporting that candidate if he should be Justice Hughes or some other man whom they believe to have progressive tendencies. The third, and smallest element, is composed of out-and-out Roosevelt followers, the irreconcilables who would not support any one but the colonel and who insist that the ticket will hold any progressive or republican ticket which he does not head.
